PROPOSITION:

The Special Election will determine whether to revoke the authority to issue the remaining $16,400,000 of bonds voted for the performing arts center also known as the Arts of Collin County Project.

The City of Frisco elects their Mayor and Council At-Large. Being elected At-Large gives you representation by all who serve on the council, regardless of where you live. In accordance with the City of Frisco's current Home Rule Charter, each member is elected to a three (3) year term.

During the election season, there are many "Meet the Candidates" forums for individuals to meet and discuss the candidates' thoughts for the vision and growth of the city. Visit each candidate's personal website for more information on their individual views and forum dates.
